TERRA DI TUTTI FILM FESTIVAL 2012

Documentaries from southern countries and social cinema exhibition

Cinema Lumière - via Azzo Gardino 65

Bologna (BO)

The Italian preview of Captive by the Philippine director Brillante Mendoza will open the 6th edition of Terra di Tutti Film Festival, the festival dedicated to the documentaries and social cinema from Southern countries, organized by Cospe and Gvc.

From October 2nd to October 14th meetings, events and showings will take place at Cinema Lumière and in other venues in Bologna; twelve days dedicated to social issues dealing with themes such as Bosnia, Palestine, migrations and poverty, fights for rights, access to resources, and protection of biodiversity.

Photo exhibitions, meetings, and closer looks at the unknown aspects of the happenings in the southern part of the world will be held at bookstores and cultural locations throughout the city.
