TTFF PRIZES

The Festival offers a support on the production of audiovisual and/or purchase of materials which is equal to the value of 1.000 (one thousand) Euros, to be divided between the two best works:

1. Prize to the Best Italian production chosen by the quality jury of the Festival
1. Prize to the Best International production chosen by the Council of Foreigners and Stateless of Bologna and named in memory of Cheick Sarr

BENEDETTO SENNI SPECIAL PRIZE

A special Prize named in memory of Benedict Senni for the value of 500 (five hundred) Euros will be given. The Prize will be awarded to a documentary which is considered worthy by the Management Committee of the Award, at its sole discretion. It is hoped that the prize can be awarded to a film that addresses issues relating to the major themes of sustainable development and technology transfer. The context related to the African continent will be a source of preferential choice.

FAIRTRADE SPECIAL PRIZE

Fairtrade Italy is a consortium that represents Italy in the FAIRTRADE Certification Mark. It is part of Fairtrade International, which is the international coordination of organizations that promote the Fairtrade Mark in their countries. Fairtrade Italy establishes a prize of 500 (five hundred) Euros and Fair Trade certified products for the work that expresses in the best way the values of fairness in trade relations between the North and South of the world, with particular attention to the rights of workers in the South and choices of consumers in the North.

PRIZE-GIVING

The prize-giving will take place during the Festival's last night. The judgments on the works awards are unquestionable.
